Case No. 10-29159-WTT

(Jointly Administered with Case No. 10-30002 WTT)

Chief Judge William T. Thurman

Chapter 11

NSRC'S SUPPLEMENTAL OBJECTION TO DEBTOR'S
PROPOSED ORDER EMPLOYING A. JOHN A. BRYAN,
JR. AS CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF THE DEBTORS

Nevada Star Resource Corp. ("NSRC"), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby objects to the order proposed by Western Utah Copper Company and Copper King Mining Corporation (the "Debtors") for authorization to employ A. John A. Bryan, Jr. as Chief Executive Officer of the Debtors (the "Proposed Order") (docket # 341), and it states as follows:

FIRST OBJECTION: This Court's minute entry of September 9, 2010 (the "Minute Entry"), following the hearing on Mr. Bryan's employment application (the "Hearing") required as follows: "Pending Order Deadline due by 09/22/2010." The Proposed Order was not filed until October 7, 2010.

SECOND OBJECTION: The Minute Entry stated that “John A. Bryan, Jr. is approved as CEO at $50,000/mo accrual to be applied for every 120 days.” But the Proposed Order does not require Mr. Bryan to file fee applications. The following paragraph should be inserted:

Mr. Bryan shall be compensated in accordance with the procedures set forth in sections 328, 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the applicable Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the Fee Guidelines promulgated by the Executive Office of the United States Trustee, and such procedures as may be fixed by order of this Court.

Mr. Bryan’s proposed compensation is substantial, $600,000 per year. That should only be paid after his actual contribution has been shown to be commensurate.

THIRD OBJECTION: The Proposed Order makes Mr. Bryan’s engagement as CEO of the Debtors effective as of the date of the Debtors’ petitions. NSRC believes it should be effective as of August 2, 2010, the date of his employment application (docket #89). With respect to the Debtor’s legal professionals, the Court noted specifically at the Hearing and in the Minute Entry that their engagements were approved as of the date of their applications. The Court made no such notations with respect to Mr. Bryan at the Hearing or in the Minute Entry.

Respectfully Submitted on October 15, 2010.
